BOGDAN ŽIŽIĆ

Bogdan Žižić rođen je 1934. godine u Solinu. Diplomirao je pravo. Od 1960. do 1964. godine radi kao dramaturg u Zagreb filmu. Opus Bogdana Žižića obuhvaća četiri desetljeća filmskog stvaralaštva, više od stotinu kratkometražnih i srednjemetražnih filmova i pet dugometražnih igranih filmova, snimljenih pretežno prema vlastitim scenarijima.

Kao redatelj debitira dokumentarnim filmom Poplava. Početkom sedamdesetih realizira niz kratkih igranih filmova, u rasponu od stiliziranih s komponentama fantastike i nadrealizma (Madeleine, mon amour!, Putovanje) do onih eksplicitnije suvremene tematike (Moji dragi susjedi, Šala, Nož, Posljednja utrka). Prvim dugometražnim filmom Kuća (1975) osvaja Veliku zlatnu Arenu. Taj uspjeh ponavlja i filmom Ne naginji se van. Zatim snima filmove Daj što daš, Rani snijeg u Münchenu i Cijena života. Među kratkim filmovima ističu se Ivana, Ekspresionizam u hrvatskom slikarstvu, Emanuel Vidović, Presa i Jedan život.

Nagrađivan je na međunarodnim festivalima kratkometražnog filma, a snimao je igrane i dokumentarne filmove u inozemstvu.

U komisiji za dodjelu nagrade Vladimir Nazor za filmsku umjetnost bili su:
Enes Midžić - predsjednik,
Ivo Gregurević, Ilija Ivezic, Joško Marušić, Tomislav Radić,
Dejan Šorak i Vera Zima.

Bogdan Žižić was born in 1934 in Solin. He holds a degree in law. From 1960 to 1964 he worked as a dramaturg at Zagreb Film. Bogdan Žižić's career in the film industry spans over almost four decades – he has made over a hundred short and medium-length films and five feature films, mostly based on his scripts.

The documentary film The Flood marks his directorial debut. At the beginning of the seventies, he made a number of short films, ranging from the stylized ones with fantastic and surreal elements (Madeleine, mon amour!, A Journey) to the explicit ones tackling contemporary themes (My Dear Neighbours, A Joke, The Knife, The Final Race). His first feature film The House from 1975 earned him the Grand Golden Arena. The film Don't Lean Out the Window was equally successful. This was followed by the films Whatever You Can Spare, Early Snow in Munich and The Price of Life. Some of his notable short films include Ivana, Expressionism in Croatian Painting, Emanuel Vidović, Presa and One Life.

Vjesnikova Nagrada Krešo Golik za životni doprinos filmskoj umjetnosti
RELJA BAŠIĆ

Nagrada Krešo Golik za životni doprinos filmskoj umjetnosti ove je godine pripala Relji Bašiću koji je u pravo u Golikovim filmovima Tko pjeva, zlo ne misli i Imam dvije mame i dva tate ostvario najpoznatije uloge.

Relja Bašić diplomirao je glumu na Akademiji dramske umjetnosti u Zagrebu u klasi Branka Gavelle, no i prije studija pojavljuje se na filmu: 1953. godine u Kamenim horizontima Ivana Šimatovića i 1954. u danas iznimno cijenjenom, a tada neshvaćenom Koncertu Branka Belana, prvom hrvatskom filmu prikazanom na Festivalu igranog filma u Puli, na njegovom prvom izdanju. Posebno kvalitetan nastup ostvaruje 1966. u Rondu Zvonimira Berkovića: za ulogu umjetnika i prevarenog supruga Fedje nagrađen je Zlatnom Arenom na Festivalu igranog filma u Puli. Godine 1968. ostvaruje prvu suradnju s Krešom Golikom na filmu Imam dvije mame i dva tate, koji u Puli osvaja treću nagradu. Bašićeva uloga Gospona Fulira u Golikovom filmu Tko pjeva zlo ne misli ostat će do danas jedna od najslavnijih na hrvatskom filmu uopće, dosegnuvši kulturni status.

Zapažene nastupe ostvaruje 1976. ulogom Kralja štakora u Izbavitelju Krste Papića i 1982. ulogom Atme u Kiklpu Antuna Vrdoljaka. S Krešom Golikom surađuje i 1978. na filmu Ljubica i 1988. na posljednjem Golikovom filmu Vila Orhideja.

Relja Bašić je, tijekom iznimno bogate pedesetpetogodišnje filmske karijere, nastupio u više od 140 filmskih i televizijskih uloga u zemlji i inozemstvu. Nastupao je i na njemačkom, francuskom, slovenskom, talijanskom te engleskom jeziku, ostvarivši 71 ulogu u inozemstvu, surađujući s istaknutim imenima europskog i svjetskog filma, kao što su Volker Schlöndorff, Peter Ustinov, Abel Gance, Robert Hossein, Lamont Johnson, James Cagney, Alexandre Astruc, Mauro Bolognini, Wojciech Jasny, Luigi Magni, Wolfgang Becker i Giuliano Montaldo.

Osim filmske, ostvaruje i zapaženu kazališnu karijeru: već 1955. Bojan Stupica ga uključuje u dramski ansambl HNK u Zagrebu, gdje je u stalnom angažmanu do 1967. Godine 1968. prelazi u status samostalnog umjetnika te kao glumac i redatelj djeluje u Teatru ITD, Kazalištu Komedija, Zagrebačkom kazalištu mladih i na Dubrovačkim ljetnim igrama. U to vrijeme realizira i svojih prvi šest režija (Ljubač, Crna komedija, Jedan dan u smrti Joe Egg, Stara vremena, Obećanja, Hotel Plaza). Godine 1974. s grupom istaknutih glumaca osniva Teatar u gostima, u kojem kao umjetnički direktor, glumac i redatelj ostaje sve do njegova gašenja 2004.

Odluku o dodjeli Nagrade Krešo Golik za životni doprinos filmskoj umjetnosti Relji Bašiću donio je ocjenjivački sud u kojem su bili filmski redatelji Zvonimir Berković (predsjednik), Ivan Šime Šimatović i Vinko Brešan, glumica Alma Prica te filmski kritičar Zlatko Vidačković.

The Krešo Golik Award granted by Croatian daily Vjesnik for lifetime contribution to film art - RELJA BAŠIĆ

Nagrada Fabijan Šovagović Društva hrvatskih filmskih redatelja za glumca ili glumicu čije je djelovanje ostavilo trag u povijesti hrvatskoga filma također je pripala Relji Bašiću.

The Fabijan Šovagović Award of the Croatian Film Directors' Guild to an actor or an actress for their outstanding contribution to Croatian film industry has been granted to Relja Bašić as well.

This year's Krešo Golik Award for lifetime contribution to cinematic art has been granted to Relja Bašić who made his most notable screen appearances precisely in Golik's films One Song a Day Takes Mischief Away (Tko pjeva zlo ne misli) and I Have Two Mothers and Two Fathers (Imam dvije mame i dva tate).

Relja Bašić studied for a degree in acting at the Zagreb Academy of Dramatic Art in the class of Dr. Branko Gavella. However, Bašić embarked on his film career even before his studies: in 1953 in Ivan Šimatović's Stone Horizons (Kameni horizonti) and in today much appreciated, and back then ununderstood, Branko Belan's Concert (Koncert), the first Croatian film presented at the first edition of the Pula Film Festival.

He made a particularly notable appearance in 1966 in Zvonimir Berković's Roundabout (Rondo): Bašić won the Golden Arena at the Pula Film Festival for his role of the artist and the deceived husband Fedja. In 1968, he first collaborated with Krešo Golik on the film I Have Two Mothers and Two Fathers, the third prize winner of Pula. Bašić's role of Mr Fulir in Golik's film One Song a Day Takes Mischief Away remains one of the most notable ones in Croatian film in general, reaching cult status.

Bašić made notable screen appearances in 1976 as the King of Rats in Krsto Papić's The Rat Savior (Izbavitelj) and in 1982 as Atma in Anton Vrdoljak's Cyclops (Kiklop). He collaborated with Krešo Golik in his 1978 film Violet (Ljubica) and in his last 1988 film The Orchid Villa (Vila Orhideja).

In the course of his extremely rich fifty year long film career, Relja Bašić has appeared in more than 140 roles in film and television in the country and abroad. He has performed also in German, French, Slovenian, Italian and English, appearing in 71 roles abroad, collaborating with prominent names of European and world film, such as Volker Schlöndorff, Peter Ustinov, Abel Gance, Robert Hossein, Lamont Johnson, James Cagney, Alexandre Astruc, Mauro Bolognini, Wojciech Jasny, Luigi Magni, Wolfgang Becker and Giuliano Montaldo.

Apart from his films, he has also had a successful stage career: already in 1955 Bojan Stupica accepted him into the drama ensemble of the Croatian National Theatre in Zagreb where he remained until 1967. In 1968, he became a freelance artist, working as an actor and director for ITD Theatre, Comedy Theatre, Zagreb Youth Theatre and Dubrovnik Summer Festival. At that time he staged his first six plays (Luv, Black Comedy, A Day in the Death of Joe Egg, Old Times, Promises, Promises, The Plaza Hotel). In 1974, with a group of distinguished actors, he founded the Guest Theatre theatre company for which he worked as an artistic director, actor and director until 2004 when it closed down.

The decision to grant the Krešo Golik Award for lifelong contribution to film art to Relja Bašić was reached by the jury composed of film director Zvonimir Berković (president), Ivan Šime Šimatović and Vinko Brešan, actress Alma Prica and film critic Zlatko Vidačković.

Nagrada Marijan Rotar MIROSLAV TATIĆ

The Marijan Rotar Award MIROSLAV TATIĆ

Odajući počast Marijanu Rotaru, osnivaču i idejnom ocu Festivala igranog filma u Puli, njegovu djelu i vizijama, Grad Pula uveo je 2004. godine nagradu koja nosi njegovo ime, a dodjeljuje se pojedincima ili institucijama koji su idejama, djelima, radom i pomoći, nastojanjima i potporom spojili dvije osnovne tendencije - Pulu i film. Prvi je dobitnik bio Fadil Hadžić, slijedili su Petar Krelja, Guerino Zuban, Martin Bizjak te 2008. Igor Galo.

Ovogodišnji dobitnik ove prestižne nagrade je Miroslav Tatić, čovjek koji je punih pedeset godina svoga života bezuvjetno darovao filmu i svim djelatnostima vezanim uz film, te posebice Festivalu igranog filma u Puli. Miroslav Tatić je s pokretnom slikom sudsinski vezan – film ga je s devet godina izabrao, očarao i začarao, postao i ostao njegova ljubav i izbor; odredio je njegovo školovanje i profesiju. Zanesenjak kojemu je film u srcu i umu, Tatić je - filmu ušao pod kožu!

Prije točno pedeset godina (rođen u Puli, 12. kolovoza 1950.) jedan je devetogodišnji dječak, privučen magičnim svijetom filma, svakodnevno dolazio u filmsku kabinu, znatiželjno pratio rad projektorata, skupljao ostatke filmskih vrpca, veselio se svakom odbačenom filmskom plakatu.

Imao je samo jedanaest godina kada je - današnje jedino - pulsko kino iznenada ostalo bez kino-operatera; uvjerojao je odrasle da on može umješno raditi taj posao i tako zaradio svoju prvu "filmsku plaću". Zanimanje, ljubav, strast za filmom i filmskom umjetnošću odredila mu je život. Sve što je od najranije mladosti do danas u životu radio bilo je vezano uz film.

U Filmskom klubu Jelen završava tečaj za kino-amatere; tu režira nekoliko filmova za koje dobiva priznanja i nagrade. Istovremeno, kao muntažer filma sudjeluje u realizaciji brojnih amaterskih filmova. Pored toga je aktivni sudionik u organizaciji jednog od najvećih jugoslavenskih festivala amaterskog filma; aktivni sudionik u realizaciji programa Kluba prijatelja filma. Kroz sve ove, i brojne druge kontakte s filmom razvija se i buja Tatićeva mladenačka općinjenost filmom, koja mu određuje i izbor studija.

Na beogradskoj Akademiji za kazalište, film, radio i TV upisuje studij na grupi za organizaciju filmsko-televizijskog smjera. Akademija se tijekom studija transformira u Fakultet dramskih umjetnosti, gdje Tatić diplomira prije roka. S diplomom organizatora filma i televizije kratko vrijeme boravi u Zagrebu u Adria-filmu na poslu rukovoditelja distribucije i uvoza filmova. Kao slobodni filmski radnik u funkciji direktora filma sudjeluje u snimanju srednjemetražnog igranog filma Žene mojih obala i kratkometražnog filma Put.

Već tijekom studija redovito sudjeluje u organizaciji Festivala jugoslavenskog igranog filma u Puli, a od 1978. obnaša funkciju tehničkog direktora Festivala. U okružju cijenjenih i nagrađivanih, svjetski poznatih filmova, filmskih radnika, redatelja i glumaca koji su tih godina dolazili u Pulu, stječe zavidno organizacijsko znanje i iskustvo. U isto vrijeme objavljuje filmske kritike u dnevniku Glas Istre u tjednoj rubrici Filmski kaleidoskop. Kao vanjski suradnik Pedagoškog fakulteta predavač je filmske umjetnosti.

Iako ga 1985. godine život odvodi u Rijeku, na novi posao direktora Rijekokino, veza s pulskim Festivalom nikada nije prestala – štoviše, traje do danas. Tako je Tatić na 47., 48. i 49. Puli glavni organizator, a od 54. festivala do danas stručni savjetnik. I pri obnovi Kina Valli i opremanju Arene bio je dragocjen i dobronamjeran konzultant.

Kao filmski djelatnik s ovako specifičnom stručnom spremom, znanjem i iskustvom te dobrom poznavanjem hrvatske i svjetske kinematografske problematike suradnikom je Festivala kad god zatreba - uvijek s dobrim savjetom i pravim rješenjem za svaki tehnički ili organizacijski problem.

Miroslava Tatića s pravom možemo nazvati Dobrim duhom Festivala.

Paying honors to Marijan Rotar, the founder and the originator of the Pula Film Festival, to his work and his visions, in 2004 the City of Pula introduced an award that carries his name and is granted to individuals and institutions whose ideas, works, help, tendencies and support have brought together two basic tendencies - Pula and film. The first winner was Fadil Hadžić, followed by Petar Krelja, Guerino Zuban, Martin Bizjak and in 2008 Igor Galo.

This year's winner of this prestigious award is Miroslav Tatić, a man who has given fifty years of his life (born in Pula, August 12th, 1950) unconditionally to film and all film related activities, to the Pula Film Festival in particular. Miroslav Tatić is linked to moving images by fate – at the age of nine the film chose, charmed, and enchanted him to become and stay his love and his choice; it determined his education and profession. An enthusiast with film in his heart and mind, Tatić has sneaked under film's skin!

As a nine-year-old boy he would go to the projection room every day and at the age of eleven he was a substitute for the projector operator and earned his first "film salary".

He completed a course for film amateurs at the film club Jelen, he directed and edited films and participated in the organization of the MAAF.

After graduating from the Belgrade Academy of Theatre, Film, Radio and Television, he resided for a short while in Zagreb, working for Adria Film as a film import and distribution manager. As a freelance film artist, he participated in the shooting of the medium-length feature Women of My Shores and the short subject The Road as a production manager.

Already during his studies, he regularly participated in the organization of the Festival of the Yugoslav Feature Film in Pula and since 1978 he has been the Festival's technical director, which brought him excellent organizational skills and experience. At the same time, he contributed a weekly film review column entitled Film Kaleidoscope to the daily paper Glas Istre. As an adjunct lecturer of the College of Education, he lectures in cinematic art.

Although in 1985 life brought him to Rijeka to work as director of Rijekokino, the relationship with the Pula festival has never been broken. On the contrary, it exists to this date. And so was Tatić the chief organizer of the 47th, 48th and 49th Pula festival and since the 54th edition to this date its professional adviser. He was a valuable and a well-meaning consultant when it came to both the Valli Cinema renovation and the fitting out of the Arena.

Miroslav Tatić can with all reason be dubbed the Guardian Spirit of the Festival.

RETROSPEKTIVA FILMOVA PEDRA ALMODÓVARA

Da Pedro Almodóvar kojim slučajem ne postoji, trebalo bi ga izmisliti! Ovoga koji stvarno postoji bilo bi korisno klonirati. Razlog za tu nemoguću i bogohulnu operaciju bio bi neopisivo živ duh koji posljednjih tridesetak godina putem ekrana odašilje razuzданo kreativni redateljski potomak La Manche. Kadabismu oduzeli fragmente Almodóvarovih filmova – a dosad ih je snimio sedamnaest; uklonili njegov kolorit, glazbu, seksualne skandale, retoričke ispade i apartne likove – a smislio ih je stotine – taj bi ekran izgledao mračno i depresivno, surovo i prilično muški. Upravo onako kako je uglavnom izgledao i svijet proteklih desetljeća obrađen i preslikan u filmu. Nedostajalo bi mu subverzivne strasti, karnevalskog užitka, pa i katarzične emocije s kojim je nestošno dijete Francova doba, gutajući razno zabranjeno voće, isprobavajući sve i svašta – od književnosti i stripa do rock'n'rolla, na valu libertinske la movida krenulo mijenjati svijet oko sebe. A prije svega svoju Španjolsku, sputanu političkim zabranama, patrijarhatom i mnogim naslijeđenim inhibicijama. Zato o Almodóvaru nije preporučljivo razmišljati kao o filmskoj instituciji, iako on to danas po svemu neporecivo jest. Bolje ga je i dalje doživljavati kao filmaša s misijom, premda je ta misija, barem u španjolskom kontekstu, završena možda i prije negoli je snimio polovicu svojega dosadašnjeg opusa.

A sve je počelo queer-komedijom Pepi, Luci, Bom i druge djevojke iz grupe (1980), nastalom u vrijeme donošenja prvih permisivnijih zakona postfrankovske Španjolske. Bio je to svojevrsni satirički manifest nove kulture, a uvelike se referirao na tadašnju madridsku alternativnu scenu, kojoj je pripadao i sam Pedro, poslije nazvan i madridskim Warholom. Najavio je i njegove trajne zanimanje – trashom, polusvjetom, promjenljivim spolnim identitetima i nekonvencionalnim seksualnim opredjeljenjima, a prije svega ženama na putu emancipacije ili na rubu nekog sloma. Zato su već tada njegova tvorca počeli nazivati feministom, od čega se nije branio, kao ni od homoseksualnih deklaracija. Bila je to ujedno i prva objava almodovarovskoga stila – dramaturške anarhije, žanrovske eklektičnosti, strukturalne kolažnosti, sklonosti pretjerivanju, koji će se u kasnijim djelima

If by any chance Pedro Almodóvar did not exist, he would have to be reinvented! The one that does exist would really need to be cloned. Whatever the case, the reason for such an impossible and blasphemous step would be the indescribably lively spirit that has for the last thirty years been emitted through the screen by the licentiously creative director from La Mancha. If one were to cut out fragments of Almodóvar's films – seventeen of them so far; remove the colours, the music, the sex scandals, rhetoric outbursts and striking characters – of which he has created hundreds – that same screen would seem dark and depressing, harsh and rather masculine. It would be the spitting image of what the rest of the world has been for the last few decades, only processed and copied onto a movie. It would lack the subversive passion, carnival pleasure and even cathartic emotion with which the naughty child of the Franco era, gorging forbidden fruits and trying out all sorts of things – from literature and comics to rock'n'roll, started changing the world around him riding the wave of libertine la movida. Above all, the Spain fettered with political restraints, patriarchy and many inherited inhibitions. That is why Almodóvar should not be thought of as a film institution, although that is what he most certainly is today. He is much better seen as a "filmmaker with a mission", albeit that mission, at least in the Spanish context, ended perhaps even before he had filmed half of his works.

It all began with Pepi, Luci, Bom and Other Girls on the Heap (1980), a queer-comedy made at a time when the more permissive laws of the post-Franco Spain were being adopted. It was a kind of a satiric manifest of new culture that largely depicted the alternative Madrid scene of the time, of which Pedro himself was part, and was later called the "Madrid Warhol". It heralded all of his permanent interests – trash, the demimonde, transient sexual identities and non-conventional sexual orientations, but above all women heading towards emancipation or on the verge of a breakdown. It was for this that its creator was already then called a feminist, from which he did not try to distance himself, nor from the homosexual declarations. At the same time it was the first proclamation of Almodovarian style – of dramaturgic anarchy, genre eclecticism, structural collage, tendency to exaggerate, which in his later work would be wonderfully odlično nadopunjavati s citatima i intertekstualnim aluzijama na holivudske i europsku klasičku. Već u drugom filmu, Labirint strasti (1982) Almodóvarova razmetnost i visprenost doći će do izražaja u umnažanju incestuoznog edipalnog scenarija i jezičnim kalamburima, a u Mračnim navikama (1983) eskalirati u subverzivnoj komediji s poročnim opaticama kao subjektima, ali i predmetima lezbijske ljubavi.

A RETROSPECTIVE OF PEDRO ALMODOVAR'S FILMS

U toj ranijoj fazi svekolike transgresije (a i u kasnijem Lošem odgoju iz 2004.) znao se Almodóvar upuštati i u gay-intrige garnirane faličkim simbolima, kao što će 1987. učiniti u „filmu u filmu“ Zakonu žudnje. Javnost se srećom pokazala zrelo za takav scenarij, pa je film službeno predstavljao španjolsku kinematografiju u inozemstvu, označivši time i novi iskorak u legitimaciji filmskih pristupa. Jednako tako, pokušao je u međuvremenu enigmatično i simbolično dramatizirati na temu eroza i thanatosa, prekapajući po podsvjesnoj prtljazi španjolske tradicije u Matadoru (1986). A bilo je i fikcionalnih, realističkih izleta među naizgled obične ljude iz madridskog predgrađa, kao u crnoj komediji Čime sam to zasluzila? (1984), gdje se ključ subverzije nalazi u rukama nervozne i zapuštenе domaćice u obitelji disfunktionalnoj na Almodóvarov način. Glavnu ulogu u tom bizarnom filmu odigrala je njegova prva muza – Carmen Maura. One druge – Cecilia Roth, Veronica Forqué, Marisa Peredes, Penelope Cruz, čekale su da opet dođu na red ili su tek trebale doći. Jer, od Žena na rubu živčanoga sloma (1988) preko Sve o mojoj majci (1999), koji je cementirao almodovarovsku instituciju, do kasnijeg Vraćam se (2006), njegov svijet uglavnom pripada ženama, nerijetko izloženima različitim tehnikama grotesknog ili samo humornog očuđavanja, osobito u trima filmovima s Victorijom Abril (Veži me, 1989, Visoke pete, 1991, i Kika, 1993). Istina, posvećenost drugom spolu, osobito kada se šali mazohizmom ili ga stavљa u mačistički kontekst (Živo meso, 1997), znao je izazivati i negativne reakcije iz feminističkih krugova. No, zafrkantskog i naizgled neozbiljnog Pedra otkupljivala je sentimentalna solidarnost s junakinjama koje se na kraju ipak uspijejavaju otrgnuti stereotipu žrtve, kao i pokušaj nalaženja ravnoteže u heteroseksualnim odnosima (Cvijet moje tajne, 1995, Pričaj s njom, 2002).

Sa ženskim scenarijima, ali i bez njih, Almodóvarov je svijet postupno postajao emotivno složeniji, narativno koherentniji i prohodniji, a izražajno sofisticiraniji i elegantniji. Zato i danas, kada je njegova prvotna misija detabuiziranja i oslobađanja Španjolske završena a misao mu sve češće leti ka rodnoj La Manchi, nudi dovoljno razloga da još jednom pogledamo njegove stare filmove. Uostalom, nismo svi Španjolci!

supplemented by quotations and inter-textual allusions to Hollywood and European classics. Already in his second film, the Labyrinth of Passion (1982), will Almodóvar's extravagance and skilfulness come to light as the intertwining of incestuous oedipal scenario and linguistic plots, and in Dark Habits (1983) will it escalate into a subversive comedy with vice-ridden nuns as both subjects and objects of lesbian love. In this early phase of complete and utter transgression (and later in Bad Education from 2004) Almodóvar would go into gay intrigues garnished with phallic symbols, as he would do in the 1987 "film within a film" – The Law of Desire. But, luckily, the audience was ready for such a scenario and the film officially represented Spanish cinema abroad, thus making a step forward in legitimising film misdemeanours.

In the meantime he also tried to enigmatically and symbolically dramatise the Eros and Thanatos theme by digging into the subconscious compartment of Spanish tradition in Matador (1986). There were also some fictional, "realist" trips to the apparently ordinary people from Madrid suburbia, like the black comedy What Have I Done to Deserve This? (1984), where the key to subversion lies in the hands of a nervous and neglected housewife of a family dysfunctional in the Almodóvarian way. His first muse – Carmen Maura starred in that film; all of the other muses – Cecilia Roth, Veronica Forqué, Marisa Peredes, Penelope Cruz etc. had to wait for their turn or had yet to be discovered. Because, from Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown (1988) through All About My Mother (1999) that cemented the Almodóvarian institution, to the recent Volver (2006), his world mostly belonged to women, often exposed to various techniques of the grotesque or just humorous wonder, especially in three films with Victoria Abril (Tie Me Up! Tie Me Down!, 1989, High Heels, 1991, and Kika, 1993). His dedication to the other sex sometimes, especially when he played with masochism or put it into a macho context (Live Flesh, 1997), brought about negative reactions from feminist circles. But the playful and seemingly flippant Pedro was redeemed by the sentimental solidarity with heroines who in the end manage to break free of the victim stereotype, as well as the attempt to find balance in heterosexual relationships (The Flower of My Secret, 1995; Talk to Her, 2002).

With female scenarios or without them, Almodóvar's world has become more complex in its emotions, more coherent in its narrative and far more sophisticated and elegant in expressiveness. Therefore today, when his initial mission of liberating and de-tabooing Spain has finished, and his thoughts are getting closer and closer to his native La Mancha, there are reasons enough to see all of his old movies all over again. Besides, not all of us are Spanish!

Koncept vizualizacije
56. festivala igranog filma

"Pula više od pola stoljeća živi s Festivalom. Ideja koncepta za 56. festival igranog filma je proizašla iz slogana festivala "Film pod kožom" jer smo željeli naglasiti povezanost Festivala, grada Pule i njezinih žitelja. Kroz fotografije potencirali smo Pulu kakvu je poznaju ljudi koji ovdje žive; lokacije korištene na plakatima su neuobičajene i istovremeno prepoznatljive građanima Pule. Izbjegavajući (pod navodnicima) Pulu s razglednicu, željeli smo poslati poruku da je Festival ovdje za sve građane Pule i da je postao njezin sastavni dio u istoj mjeri kao što su to postali Uljanik, Arena ili more." (Kadar d.o.o.)

KADAR d.o.o. is a graphic design studio owned by a married couple - Karolina Prymaka and Dražen Tomić.

Karolina Prymaka was born in 1974 in Lodz (Poland). In 1986, she moved to Sweden and then went to study in London where she graduated from the London College of Printing and then worked as a senior designer for the art publisher Thames and Hudson.

Dražen Tomić was born in 1971 in Pula where he lived and worked until 1998 when he moved to London to work as a senior designer for Thames and Hudson as well.

They both worked on a number of projects, including book design and layout, branding, book cover design, promotional material design, illustrations and photography.

In 2008, they returned to Pula where they founded the graphic design and photography studio KADAR. Their clients include Thames and Hudson, Phaidon and Getty, among others.

Visual concept of the 56th Pula Film Festival

"For more than half a century, Pula has been coexisting with the Festival. The idea for the concept of the 56th Pula Film Festival has derived from the festival slogan "Film under the skin" because we wanted to emphasize the closeness between the Festival, the city of Pula and its residents. Through the photographs, we wanted to present Pula as people who live here know it; the places on the posters are unusual and at the same time recognizable to Pula residents. Avoiding (in quotation marks) Pula from the postcards, we wanted to send out a message that the Festival is here for all Pula residents and that it has become an integral part of the city, just like Uljanik, the Arena or the sea."

CRTIĆI NA PORTARATI CARTOONS AT PORTARATA

Subota, 18. 7. u 22.15

Nakon tradicionalnog spektakularnog vatrometa povodom svečanog otvaranja Festivala, na veliku radost roditelja i djece neće biti vrijeme za počinak nego za Čudesni svijet Animafesta, seriju simpatičnih kratkih crtica za djecu i odrasle jednog od najznačajnijeg svjetskog festivala animiranog filma - Animafesta.

Volimo sanjati!

Što kad bi svatko imao Miriamino kazalište (Priit Tender /5'/ Estonija) i mogao provoditi dane spokojno doma? Ili naći najsavršeniji privatni Zagrljaj (Lee Sang-hui /4'20"/ Južna Koreja)? Stremiti nebu sanjajući svakodnevno kao Jiro i Miu (Jun Nito /7'54"/ Češka)? Ili sanjati o vlastitom domu kao malo divlje mače Čupav (Miyuki Echigoya /5'/ Japan)? Ili bi to bila noćna mora kao u Noćnoj mori kasice-prasice (Molly Porter /2'34"/ Velika Britanija)? S druge strane, može li divan san prenijeti kroz vrijeme i prostor zbog Ljubavi (Kim Dong-hui /2'05"/ Južna Koreja)? Može li to mali mišji san o danima kada više neće morati bježati od mačaka kao u Animatou (Claude Luyet, Georges Schwizgebel, Dominique Delachaux-Lambert, Claude Barras, Roméo Andreani /5'36"/ Švicarska)? A 2 metra (Javier Mrad, Javier Salazar, Eduardo Maraggi /5'50"/ Argentina) koji žele samo čistu plohu da nastave svoju igru? Jeste li ikad čuli za Cipelu (Qian Shi /3'50"/ Danska) na poklon? A jeste li čuli zov sove kao u Rupama na polu (Alexei Alexeev /2'08"/ Mađarska)? Možda je pjenušava kupka u Ovca Shaun: Kupanje (Christopher Sadler /7'05"/ Velika Britanija) savršeni način da se riješite umora? I tko bi rekao da je Čistač (Dustin Rees /2'44"/ Švicarska) svjedočio tolikim velikim ljubavnim pričama?

Ono što volimo još više jest vidjeti animirane snove kako postaju stvarnost!

Srijeda, 22. 7. u 21.00

Priče iz davnine, niz su višestruko nagrađivanih i od kritike i publike obožavanih animiranih filmova prema prekrasnim knjigama Ivane Brlić Mažuranić adaptaciji međunarodne ekipe animatora, glumaca, glazbenika, ilustratora i programera. Obavezno za djecu i roditelje!

Saturday, July 18th, at 22:15

To the joy of parents and children, after the traditional spectacular fireworks display marking the opening of the Festival, it will not be the time to go to bed but the time to enter the Magical World of Animafest, a series of entertaining short cartoons for children and adults of one of the most important animated film festivals in the world - the Animafest.

We like to dream!

What if everybody had Miriam's Theatre (Priit Tender /5'/ Estonia) and could spend their days peacefully at home? Or find the most perfect private Hug (Lee Sang-hui /4'20"/ South Korea)? Strive for heaven by dreaming every day just like Jiro and Miu (Jun Nito /7'54"/ the Czech Republic)? Or dream of having a home like the somewhat wild kitten Fluffy (Miyuki Echigoya /5'/ Japan)? Or would that be a nightmare like in Banking on Escape (Molly Porter /2'34"/ Great Britain)? On the other hand, can a beautiful dream transfer one through time and space because of Love (Kim Dong-hui /2'05"/ South Korea)? Can this be done by a tiny mouse dream about days when he will no longer have to run away from cats like in Animatou (Claude Luyet, Georges Schwizgebel, Dominique Delachaux-Lambert, Claude Barras, Roméo Andreani /5'36"/ Switzerland)? What about 2 Metres (Javier Mrad, Javier Salazar, Eduardo Maraggi /5'50"/ Argentina) who only want a clean surface so they can go on with their game? Have you ever heard of a Shoe (Qian Shi /3'50"/ Denmark) for a gift? And have you heard an owl cry like in Huhu - Pole Hole (Alexei Alexeev /2'08"/ Hungary)? A bubble bath in Shaun The Sheep - Wash Day (Christopher Sadler /7'05"/ Great Britain) may be the best way to ease your tiredness? And who would tell that The Cleaner (Dustin Rees /2'44"/ Switzerland) has witnessed so many big love stories?

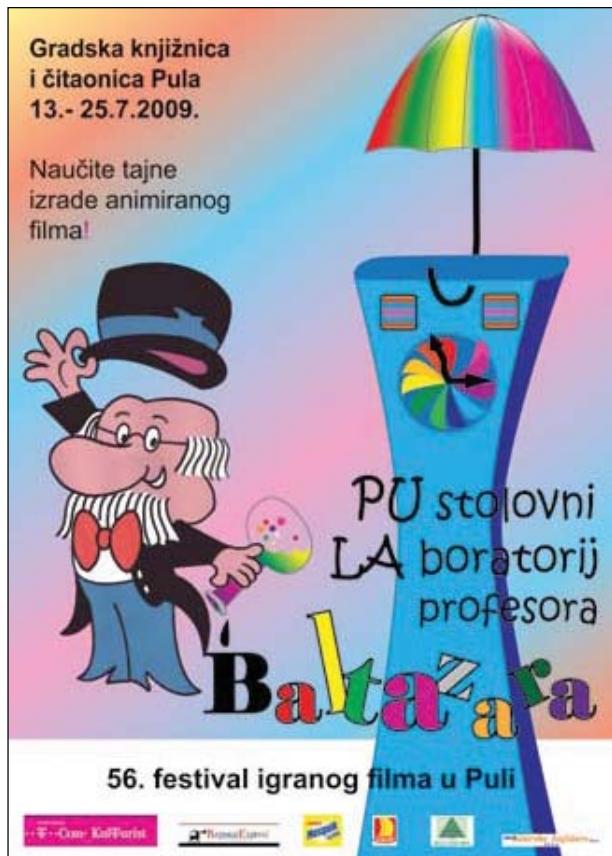

What we like even more is to see animated dreams become reality!

Wednesday, July 22nd, at 21:00

Tales of Long Ago, a series of awarded animated films adored by both the critics and the audience based on the beautiful books by Ivana Brlić Mažuranić and adapted by an international team of animators, actors, musicians, illustrators and programmers. A must-see for both children and parents!

PUSTOLOVNI LABORATORIJ PROFESORA BALTAZARA

PROFESSOR BALTHAZAR'S ADVENTURE LABORATORY

Gradska knjižnica i čitaonica Pula, 13.-25. 7.

Voditelji laboratorija: Zvonimir Rumboldt i Tomislav Fiket

Dugo i toplo ljetno idealno je za eksperimentiranje i otkrivanje tajni izrade animiranog filma. Čuveni Profesor Baltazar od ove godine umjesto škole vodi pustolovni laboratoriј u kojem filmske pokuse mogu izvoditi svi klinci i klinice u dobi od 7 do 12 godina. Mnogi raniji polaznici već su iskusni filmaši željni novih, još neotkrivenih saznanja, stoga su za njih u naprednoj grupi pripremljeni novi sadržaji i još uzbudljiviji filmski podvizi. Oni koji već nekoliko godina čekaju sedmi rođendan ili se s Profesorem Baltazarom susreću prvi put, s velikim entuzijazmom kreću ispočetka i pripremaju se za naprednu grupu druge godine.

Teorijski dio laboratoriјa podrazumijeva upoznavanje s osnovama filma i filmske umjetnosti, a praktični obuhvaća sve faze kreiranja filma: od razvoja ideje i scenarija preko izrade scenografije i prikupljanja rekvizita do snimanja i montaže. Polaznici uz pomoć voditelja osmišljavaju priču, kreiraju sadržaj, boje i lijepе elemente scenografije, upravljaju figurama omiljenih junaka filma te snimaju odabранe kadrove digitalnim fotoaparatom. Tehnikom stop-animacije nastat će kratki animirani film. Nema bolje recepture za nezaboravno ljetno iskustvo!

Pula City Library and Reading-Room, 13-25 July

Laboratory moderators: Zvonimir Rumboldt and Tomislav Fiket

Long and warm summer is perfect for experimenting and revealing the secrets of making animated films. This year, instead of a film school, renowned Professor Balthazar will hold an adventure laboratory where all children, aged between 7 and 12, will be able to experiment with filmmaking. Many past attendees have already become experienced filmmakers, eager for new, still unrevealed ideas, and therefore there is an advanced group organized for them, with new contents and even more exciting film projects. Those who have been waiting for their 7th birthday for a few years now, or those who will meet Professor Balthazar for the first time, shall start from the beginning with enthusiasm and prepare themselves for the next year's advanced programme.

The theoretical part of the workshop includes introduction to film and cinematic art, whereas the practical part comprises all the phases of film creation - from the development of the idea and the script, through set design and acquisition of movie props, to filming and editing. With the help of the moderators, the attendees shall come up with a story, develop the content of the film, paint and glue set elements, manipulate film protagonists, and shoot selected frames with a digital camera. A short animated film shall be created by using stop motion (frame-by-frame) animation. There's no better way to have a great summer experience!

PROGRAM KRATKIH IGRANIH FILMOVA SHORT FILMS PROGRAMME

Hrvatski kratkometražniigrani film dugo je bio u sjeni „velikog brata“, no ove se godine nesumnjivo probio u prvi plan. Najzapaženiji su bili Ciao mama Gorana Odvorčića, u konkurenciji za Zlatnu palmu (verzija tog filma u Puli će biti prikazana u omnibusu Zagrebačke priče) i Tulum Dalibora Matanića, u konkurenciji Međunarodnog tjedna kritike u Cannesu. Bio je to povod Festivalu igranog filma u Puli da ove godine krene s novim programom kratkog filma koji će se prikazivati na večernjim projekcijama u Kinu Valli, neposredno prije programa s izborom laureata Dana hrvatskog filma. Osim hrvatskih kratkih filmova i jedne koprodukcije, u programu je i Liščev zaljev u režiji uglednog mladog francuskog glumca Gregoirea Colina, koji igra glavnu ulogu u filmu Ubojica Cedrica Angera u međunarodnoj konkurenciji Festivala.

Croatian short feature film has been in the shadow of its “big brother” for a long time but this year it has undoubtedly come to the foreground. The most notable ones were Goran Odvorčić’s Ciao Mama, competing for the Palme d’Or (a version of the film will screen in Pula as part of the Zagreb Tales omnibus), and Dalibor Matanić’s The Party, in the competition of the International Critics’ Week in Cannes. This lead the Pula Film Festival to launch a new short films section this year that will screen at the Valli Cinema in the evenings, just before the Days of Croatian Film laureates programme. Apart from Croatian short films and a co-production, the film The Fox Bay by prominent young French actor Gregoire Colin will also be presented. Colin plays the lead role in Cedric Anger’s film The Killer that will screen in the Festival’s international competition programme.

BRING YOUR OWN FILM!

Ovogodišnji 6. doFuraj svoj film – 640x480 max. zaključen je 20. lipnja. Kao i ranijih godina, prijaviti su se mogli filmovi snimljeni do rezolucije 640x480 u trajanju od 5 sekundi do 5 minuta (uključujući naslov, uvod i duljinu trajanja zvuka), zapisani u video formatima mpeg, avi i wmv.

Ovaj višegodišnji popratni festivalski program dokaz je kako većina odličnih stvari nastaje spontano, možda i slučajno, a zahvaljujući brzom tehnološkom napretku sve je više filmskih amatera koji te spontane i slučajne trenutke bilježe. U proteklih pet godina prijavilo se 112 autora (doslovno od 7 do 77) sa 135 filmova.

Tročlani žiri, kojeg čine Jakov Kosanović, filmski kritičar i novinar Slobodne Dalmacije, Zoran Stajić, urednik rubrike Showbizz na dnevnik.hr, te Matija Debeljuh, video umjetnik, ovom ne slučajno nego namjerno organiziranom festivalskom programu pristupa odgovorno i profesionalno, a nakon niza razgovora i rasprava dodjeljuje glavnu nagradu – laptop. O najboljem filmu po glasovima publike odlučuju posjetitelji na t-portalu i stranici festivala, a slučajni prolaznici ove će godine imati priliku pogledati sve uratke u sklopu programa Ukratko na Portarati.

Ako kojim slučajno redovno furate svoj film, ne zaboravite doFurati jedan na sljedeći, 57. festival igranog filma u Puli.

Submissions for the sixth doFuraj svoj film - 640x480 max. (Best Short Amateur Film Competition) closed on 20 July. Films in video formats mpeg, avi, wmv, divx, with 640x480 maximum resolution, lasting between five seconds and five minutes (including title, introduction and sound length), could have been submitted.

This years-long sidebar festival programme is a proof that most great things happen spontaneously, maybe even accidentally, and thanks to the rapid technological development, there are ever more film amateurs who record these spontaneous and accidental moments. In the past five years, 112 authors (literally from the age of 7 to 77) with 135 films have applied.

A three-member jury, composed of Jakov Kosanović, a film critic and Slobodna Dalmacija journalist, Zoran Stajić, editor of the Showbizz section at www.dnevnik.hr, and Matija Debeljuh, a video artist, approach this festival programme, which has been organized with intention and not accidentally, in a responsible and professional fashion and after a number of discussions and conversations they grant the award – a notebook computer. Visitors decide on the winner of the Audience Award by casting their vote at t.portal and at the festival's website. Accidental visitors will have an opportunity to see all the films in the Shortly at Portarata Programme.

If you have some interesting ideas and if you're a film enthusiast, don't forget to bring your own film for the 57th Pula Film Festival.

Arhitektura i film, subjektivni prostori,
kustosica: Branka Benčić

Poigravajući se napetostima između dimenija vremena i prostora, filmski kodovi i konvencije stvaraju i pogled, i svjet, i predmet, i iluziju, a alternativan film propituje i dekonstruira upravo unutarnje zakonitosti i odnose prema vanjskim formativnim strukturama. Ovogodišnja izložba pokušat će ukazati na specifičnu vezu između pokretnih slika (filma, videa) i arhitekture te značenja koja proizvode, a formira se oko načina na koji pojedini filmovi, filmski motivi ili sekvence govore o sugestivnoj, psihološkoj i simboličkoj kvaliteti arhitekture. Radi se o međuigri (moderne) arhitekture i filma (kinematografske reprezentacije). Prostor je shvaćen kao jedno od osnovnih izražajnih sredstava i mjesto tvorbe značenja, a jezik filma svojim je izražajnim sredstvima i sintaktičkim načelima omogućio posebno sagledavanje i prostora i stvarnosti. Prostor je tako poprište određenog dramatskog zbivanja, povijesnog događaja ili prikaz životnog ambijenta, te postaje predmetom autonomnog vizualnog eksperimenta.

U izloženim radovima četvero umjetnika – A View through a Park Jonas Dahlberga, August 2008 Rä di Martino, Interiors Ursule Mayer i Boy with a magic horn Damira Očka prikazani prostori predstavljaju performativna mjesta za otvorene narativne oblike – mesta gdje se pokreti kamere, ambient, arhitektonске strukture, glazba, dijalog, susreću sa protagonistima. U njima se naziru odnosi između arhitektonskih struktura i mogućnosti socijalne interakcije, bez obzira na to boravi li u njima čovjek ili ne. U scenama sa ili bez dijaloga, kao i u prostorima ispraznjenima od ljudi i njihove tjelesne nazočnosti, nazočnost nekog subjekta kodirana je putem pogleda, posredstvom tehničkih svojstava kamere – objektiva – uljeza, oka koje gleda. Kamera postaje mehanizam iluzije za proizvodnju renesansnog prostora, pokreta kompatibilnih ljudskom oku i ideologije predstavljanja koja se vrti oko percepcije subjekta. Mrak kinodvorane ili ambient zamraćenog galerijskog prostora poigravaju se vojerističkom maštrom publike i naglašavaju iluziju zavirivanja u privatni svijet.

Architecture and Film, subjective spaces
Curator: Branka Benčić

Playing with the tensions between time and space dimensions, film codes and conventions also create the view, and the world, and the object and the illusion, whereas alternative film explores and deconstructs internal laws and relations towards outer formative structures. This year's exhibition tries to point to a specific relation between the moving images (film, video) and architecture, and the meanings they produce, and it is formed around the manners in which specific films, film motifs or sequences, talk about a suggestive, psychological and symbolic quality of architecture. This is in fact the interplay of (modern) architecture and film (cinematographic representation). The space is perceived as one of the basic means of expression and as the place where the meaning is formed, whereas film language, with its means of expression and syntactic principles, enables special understanding of both space and reality. The space is thus the scene of a specific dramatic happening, a historic event or a life setting presentation and it becomes the object of an autonomous visual experiment.

In the works exhibited by four artists - A View through a Park by Jonas Dahlberg, August 2008 by Rä di Martino, Interiors by Ursula Mayer and Boy with a magic horn by Damir Očko – presented spaces represent performance scenes for open narration forms – places where camera movements, ambiance, architectural structures, music and dialogue meet with the protagonists. Relations between architectural structures and the possibility of social interaction, irrespective of whether a human being is there or not, can be discerned in them. In the scenes with or without dialogue, just like in spaces void of people and their physical presence, the presence of a subject is coded through the view, by means of a camera's technical characteristic – the lens – the intruder, a watching eye. The camera becomes an illusion mechanism for the creation of a renaissance space, a movement compatible with human eye and the presentation ideology that revolves around the perception of a subject. The darkness of the cinema auditorium or the setting of a dimmed gallery space play with the voyeuristic imagination of the audience and accentuate the illusion of sneaking into a private world.

A photograph of two young children, a boy and a girl, standing in front of a large, colorful LEGO-like structure they have built. They are looking at each other and smiling. The background features a window with white curtains and blue, cloud-like shapes floating in the air.

U početku je bio pokret i pogled. Radost i mašta. Ali stvoreni smo da bismo gradili, to nam je u biti. Život brzo isprepliće nizove individualnih doživljaja. Tako se stvara svijet koji poznajemo. I pamtim ga u slikama. Radoznalost je izazov, a snalažljivost je kreativni odgovor koji nam je podarila priroda. Preciznost, sigurnost i čvrstoća su obilježja snage koju smo stekli iskustvom.

Spremni smo mudro mijenjati svijet. Na bolje.
